SUBJECT: Correction - ADS 200 - Political Party Assistance Policy and Implementation Guidance

NEW MATERIAL: This mandatory reference sets forth the principles that must inform USAID political party assistance: USAID programs must support representative, multiparty system; and USAID programs may not seek to determine election outcomes.
From these principles flow a list of activities that are encouraged and those that are prohibited. A waiver process is also described, should the national interest require an exception to the policy.
